Educational Concepts Reinforced

Pam uses music, storytelling, puppets, action songs and humor to reinforce concepts such as listening, counting, holidays, manners and lots more.

Music and puppetry are invaluable tools to teach these important skills, and the children have fun while learning.

Music Puppetry Comedy

Pam is currently on Comcast Kids on Demand .She was a regular on WMAR TV2 children's show "Its Kindertime" for its nine year run. Pam has been entertaining children since 1986 with her unique brand of humor, original and familiar songs and storytelling.

Every forty minute program gets children up dancing, singing and involved in every way. Her puppets join and/or interrupt Pam to the delight of children and adults.

In this world of TV violence and computer coldness, Pam brings a warmth and gentleness to her interactive programs that children all too sel-
